

An Ode to Cyber mania

Night falls softly on the land
Infinite stars shine with gentle hand
Beneath the moon's silver glow
Echoes of memories long ago
Tranquil forests whisper secrets sweet Softly swaying trees in summer's heat
Amber sunsets fade to twilight gray
Petals of flowers unfold to greet ¹

Hidden dreams beneath the twilight's dome, 2 hearts wander far from home.
Zealous winds through midnight creep, silent echoes stir from sleep.
crimson hues in moonlight gleam, pure reflections shape the dream.
Unfolding stars their secrets show,
0 paths remain — just onward flow.
